Wildland Fire Boot Camp Overview

Individuals completing this training will be provided opportunities to apply for seasonal employment. You will be positioned to apply for seasonal and Casual Hires with the Fire Service immediately following this training.

The intent of the Boot Camp is to deliver basic firefighting training and an introduction to fire culture.

The plan for this year's Boot Camp is to spend two weekends in October at a remote duty station on the Vale District. At this duty station you will learn basics about physical fitness, dietary needs, basic outdoor camping and field skills, along with firefighter training. All you need is a pillow, sleeping bag, all terrain shoes and willingness to learn.

Job Description

Participants on wildland fire assignments will be away from home for short periods of time, enjoying primitive camping in wilderness areas without electricity, showers, cell phone reception, and at the same time experiencing some of the most beautiful county in the United States. Other assignments may land you in urban areas with all the amenities. Operating vehicles both on and off road, hiking, commercial flights, boat rides, and helicopters flights are just some of the modes of transportation to be experienced on the job.

Wildland firefighters can operate in close proximity to open flame, heat, and smoke. The work can be physically demanding and very rewarding, sometimes requiring up to 16-hour work days. The work consists of hiking, carrying heavy equipment, working near heavy machinery, and using hand tools such as shovels, Pulaski's, and chainsaws. Respect, flexibility, understanding, crew cohesion, leadership, and teamwork are the foundation of any good firefighter.
