FIRE PREVENTION ORDER
Order No. AZ910-2015-001

Under authority of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (Title 43, United States Code (U.S.C.), Section 1701, et. seq.) and pursuant to Title 43 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 9212.0-6 it is the policy of the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) to take all necessary actions to protect human life, the public lands and the resources and improvements thereon through the prevention of wild fires.

Pursuant to regulations of the Department of the Interior, found at 43 CFR 9212.1 (h) the additional following acts are prohibited on BLM areas, lands, roads, waterways, and trails, in the State of Arizona, until rescinded by the BLM Arizona State Director.

Acts prohibited under this order include the following:
- The use/discharge of explosives of any kind, incendiary or chemical devices, pyrotechnic devices or exploding targets.
- The use/discharge of any kind of fireworks as defined by this order.

Definition(s):
Fireworks includes, but is not limited to, any device which produces noise, smoke, showers of sparks, or movement by combustion or explosive materials. These explosives are defined by the U.S. Department of Transportation in 49 CFR 173. This definition includes all classes of fireworks.

The following persons are exempt from the order:
All other fire restrictions, or necessary exemptions to these restrictions, will be handled through local "permits" issued by District Managers for that purpose.

Penalties:
Any person who knowingly and willfully violates the regulations at 43 CFR 9212.1 of this title shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or to imprisonment of not more than twelve (12) months, or both. Those deemed responsible may also be found liable for all costs incurred as result of trespass including, fire suppression, rehabilitation and associated resource damages.

This order will supersede and rescind all previous fire prevention orders issued by this office. This order is effective at 12:01 a.m., on July 1, 2015, and will remain in effect until rescinded.
