Briefing for the White House Liaison, Office of the Secretary, Department of Interior

Bureau: BLM

Name of Commission: Choose a RAC Resource Advisory Council

Date: 5/26/2010

Background: The Resource Advisory Council (RAC) identified above was established by the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (43 U.S.C. 1701 et seq) as a citizens' advisory group to the Bureau of Land Management (BLM). Council members represent various categories of interest within the geographic area covered by the RAC.

Please check one:

This RAC is filling a Category 1 vacancy, representing either holders of Federal grazing permits or representatives of organizations associated with energy and mineral development, the timber industry, transportation or rights-of-way, developed outdoor recreation, off-highway vehicle use, and commercial recreation.

This RAC is filling a Category 2 vacancy, representing nationally or regionally recognized environmental organizations, archaeological and historic organizations, dispersed recreation activities, or wild horse and burro organizations.

This RAC is filling a Category 3 vacancy, representing state agencies responsible for management of natural resources, Indian tribes within or adjacent to the area for which the RAC is organized, academicians employed in the natural sciences, the public-at-large, and state, county, or local elected officials.

This appointment will help ensure that this Council's membership is balanced with respect to geographic consideration; members' interest, points of view, and place of residence; composition of the population of the area being served; Council functions to be performed; and the major issues relating to planning and management of the public lands within the area and the various major citizens' interests concerning these issues.
