

National Wild Horse and Burro News Releases

The HQ Wild Horse and Burro Program issued nine news releases on a variety of topics since the Advisory Board last met in June 2021. Additional news releases have been issued by state and district offices, which can be found on the BLM's website at BLM.gov/Press-Release. Finally, public announcements and stories related to wild horses and burros can also be found on the BLM's Tales from the Trails blog at BLM.gov/whb/blog.

BLM and Forest Service re-appoint three wild horse and burro advisory board members
September 6, 2022

National Wild Horse and Burro Advisory Board will hold next meeting in October
August 30, 2022

BLM announces new opportunity for partnerships to support management of wild horses and burros
August 10, 2022

BLM seeks services to expand fertility control efforts for wild horses and burros
May 10, 2022

BLM schedules public hearing on use of motorized vehicles for wild horse and burro management
March 25, 2022

BLM enhances protections in wild horse and burro adoption incentive program
January 26, 2022

BLM releases annual plan for wild horse and burro gathers and fertility control operations
January 5, 2022

BLM seeks wild horse and burro research proposals on fertility control and climate change
November 16, 2021

BLM prepares for emergency action to save drought-stricken wild horses and burros on public lands
August 2, 2021