Looking for work in wildland fire?

The Department of the Interior is holding two hiring events to recruit and quickly fill dozens of wildland fire jobs in California this fall. During the event, hiring officials will be available on-site to answer questions, review resumes, and help people navigate the application process. Job offers may be made on-the-spot. Apply online October 10th-17th or in-person at the applicable event. Doors will be open 9 am to 4 pm each day!
