How to Attend a Teams Live Event

1. Click the link to the Live Event.
2. If you have Microsoft Teams installed, you can view the event in the app, or you can select "Watch on the web instead."

Choose how you would like to view the event.

3. If you're signed into a Microsoft account, you'll join the live event. Otherwise, you can click "Join anonymously."

If you see this screen, you can join anonymously.
