

Driving directions to BARNM BioBlitz 2023

Purchase supplies, e.g., gas, food, water, etc. in Alamo, Ash Springs, or other populated areas before driving out to the BioBlitz as the area is remote with no services. There are no road signs and the road names in the directions are from Google Earth.

To get to the camping area from State Route 375 travel 5.8 miles west of Rachel on Highway 375.

Turn north onto a major county-maintained dirt road (Gunderson Rd/Smith Well Rd). Continue 10.9 miles north on Gunderson dirt road.

At the Smith Spring cabin, turn east (right) onto Smith Well Connect Rd. Continue 3.2 miles and turn north (left) onto an unnamed road (Shadow Rd.) west of the Worthington Mtns. Wilderness Area. Continue north on this road 4.3 miles.

Where the road comes to a Y, stay to the right, traveling north/northeast on McCutchen Rd. Continue northeast on this road 7.3 miles to the north side of the Worthington Mtns. Wilderness.

Turn south (right) onto Freiberg Rd. Several roads come together in this location. Continue south on Freiberg Rd. for 2.3 miles. Then turn right and drive west on the dirt road for 1.7 miles to arrive at Freiberg Mining District.
