

COLORADO Little Snake

Field Office

Recreation Fee Program Spending & Accomplishment Highlights 2024

Special Recreation Permits

SRP Administration

Amount Expended: $2,500.00

With existing staff The Field Office continued to provide Special Recreation Permits for predominantly big game hunting in the LSFO. The LSFO also provide event and tour SRPs for niche markets. The number of SRPs is increasing on an average of 5% each year and the Field Office has twice the national average number of permits a Field Office administers and associated workload.

Partnerships and relationships

Building partners and relationships

Amount Expended: $31,000.00

The Little Snake Field Office (LSFO) has made it a priority in recent years to build relationships with local stakeholders, user groups, and cooperating agencies in the region. As part of this process of Connecting with Communities, the LSFO is involved in multiple Colorado Regional Partnerships and is working with the communities in Moffat County to provide improved infrastructure and access to public lands.

Recreation fee dollars are an investment in outdoor recreation. Current and future generations benefit as 100% of the funds collected are reinvested in the facilities and services that visitors enjoy, use, and value.
