

OIL

Fueling America's future

The United States consumed about 20.25 million barrels of petroleum daily or 7.39 billion barrels annually in 2023.

Annual Uses for Oil in the U.S.

2023 Data

Other Uses Explained

- ✂ Petroleum Coke
- ✂ Residual fuel oil
- ✂ Kerosene
- ✂ Still gas
- ✂ Lubricants
- ✂ Waxes
- ✂ Asphalt and road oil
- ✂ Special naphthas
- ✂ Misc. Products and other liquids
- ✂ Petrochemical feedstocks
- ✂ Aviation gasoline

Alaska Oil Production

Alaska ranks 4th in the U.S. for oil reserves with about 3.4 billion barrels.

678,327
barrels produced on federal lands in 2024.

North Slope oil production area

5,000 Jobs
were supported by the BLM Alaska
Oil and Gas Program in FY2024

Cook Inlet oil production area

$53.8 MILLION+
paid in federal royalties in 2024.

*Graphic only includes federal onshore data and does not include offshore or State of Alaska data.

Learn more at <https://www.blm.gov/alaska/oil-gas>

References:
<https://www.blm.gov>
<https://www.eia.gov>
<https://revenue.data.doi.gov>
<https://dog.dnr.alaska.gov>