in Baker City, Oregon

We're excited to welcome Hansen Wheel and Wagon Shop to Baker City all the way from South Dakota!

We invite Museum Professionals, Curators, Key Volunteers to spend the day shadowing Doug Hansen and his staff as they assess the 10 wooden wagons at the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center in Baker City, Oregon.

WHEN: Friday, June 12th - All Day

COST: $50 per person includes a Wagon master Luncheon with the Hansen Wagon Team. Water/coffee for the day. Free Admission to NHOTIC. You provide transportation and arrange for your own housing. Limit to 25 guests.

WHY: Engage with one of the country's leading experts on restoration of wooden wagons and vehicles with significant museum and curatorial experience. You will have a bird's-eye view as they assess each wagon in the Interpretive Center collection. You can ask questions along the way and gain insight into how to handle and manage the wooden vehicles in your collection!

THE REAL WHY: Because you get to hang out in Baker City at a very cool museum and you get to talk to people who restore wooden wagons for a living... all day long! Looking at old wagons! What a cool way to spend the day!

TO SIGN UP: Email Ginger Savage at ginger@crossroads-arts.org and reserve your spot. Crossroads is the Friends Organization for the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center. We can invoice your museum or take payment over the phone.
