

U.S. Department of the Interior
Bureau of Land Management

Dripping Springs Natural Area
Organ Mountains-Desert Peaks National Monument

Organ Mountains Jubilee

October 24th Hikes and Strolls

Programs are free, but attendance is capped.

You must sign up at the Dripping Springs welcome table during the Jubilee!

Additional information available at signup.

FREE TICKETS TO ATTEND THE JUBILEE WILL BE AVAILABLE AT THE LAS CRUCES DISTRICT OFFICE (1800 MARQUESS ST) THE WEEK PRIOR TO THE EVENT

Time	★ ★	Description/Details	★ ★
9am-10:30am		Stop by to meet Elsie the Canulated Cow and experience a window into bovine digestion and the science of ranching (pop in program, no cap)
9:15am		Ever wonder what those old buildings are by the visitor center? Join this structure saunter to learn their many histories (≤ 0.25 miles)
10am		Meet the characters of Dripping Springs' past on this living history hike to the Van Patten Mountain Camp (1.5 miles each way)
10:15am		Ever wonder what those old buildings are by the visitor center? Join this structure saunter to learn their many histories (≤ 0.25 miles)
10:30am		Learn some of the native lants of the desert southwest on this garden stroll with the Native Plant Society (≤ 0.25 miles)
11am		Visit the ruins of Modoc Mine to unearth its mining history on this hike to Fillmore Canyon (1 mile each way) Must shuttle to the start location
12pm		Experience the desert through a new lens on this ethnobotany hike to La Cueva (0.6 miles one way with option to finish the trail & return by shuttle)
1pm		What rocks more than this view? Geology! Discover ours on this hike to the La Cueva rocks overlook (0.5 miles one way)

Additional programs may be added closer to the date. Please check back!

Hikes take place on rough, uneven terrain. Arrive in appropriate footwear/clothing for the weather with sun protection, snacks as needed, and plenty of water.