

River Flow on Image Date:
3670 CFS

Cooper's Ferry

Archaeological finds in this area date back over 13,000 years ago. The Nez Perce used the site as a river crossing around 1877.

Mile 39

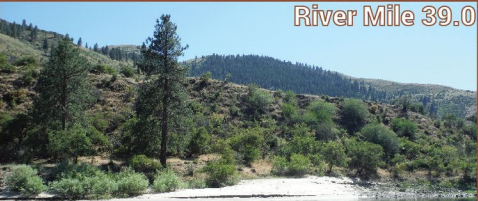

Rock Creek

To Cottonwood

Rock Creek (also known as Graves Creek)

In the early 1900s, the old historic trail forded the river and a ferry operated at this site. Today, the county road from Cottonwood enters the canyon here. Self-issue permits are located in a box approximately 1/4 mile up the road.

River Mile 39.0

Cooper's Bar

45° 54' 15.12" N, 116° 23' 44.73" W

Cooper's Bar

Named for Ben and Frances Cooper, who settled here in 1908 and operated a ranch and ferry. Water was transported here in a 6-mile ditch from Rice Creek, built by Chinese laborers. The ditch, an engineering marvel in its time, is still visible from the river.

Mile 40

River Mile 40.3

Miller Beach

45° 53' 55.70" N, 116° 21' 16.30" W

River Mile 40.3

Across from Miller

45° 53' 52.78" N, 116° 21' 17.28" W

River Mile 41.1

Lower Lone Pine

45° 53' 49.95" N, 116° 21' 24.51" W

Mile 41

Map 26