

The Federal Subsistence Management Program is a multi-agency effort to provide the opportunity for a subsistence way of life by rural Alaskans on Federal public lands and waters while maintaining healthy populations of fish and wildlife. Federal subsistence regulations apply only to Federal public lands and do not apply to private and state lands.

Rural Resident? Know if and where you can participate in Federal subsistence hunts. <https://www.doi.gov/subsistence>

It is YOUR responsibility to know where you are.
-Respect private property.
-Get permission before you hunt.
-If hunting on mining claims, notify miners of plans to hunt in the area. Miners are obligated to restrict access to areas of claims that could present safety risks.
