Thank you Bill. Barring higher level demands, I am available for a discussion any time tomorrow or Wednesday. Thursday and Friday are likely to be very hectic in light of the due date for the Bears Ears report to the President.

Ron and Randal,

This email serves as a virtual introduction. Ron is putting together the DoD response for DOI's request for comments on National Monuments created during the last several administrations. You two should discuss how DoD can best meet the request. DoD understands that this is a request for public comments and that the deadline does not apply to DoD, but having the DoD comments for adjudication along with the public comments will be useful.

For purposes of situational awareness, I would like to stay involved and am interested in attending DOI's working group meetings on this topic. Ron, however, has the lead on development of the DoD response to DOI.

Randal -- I appreciate your assistance with this.
