attached is a clean version, with Gary's edits accepted and the new paragraph and fn highlighted. If it looks ok, I propose that we circulate it to the broader group (Dan, Jack, Rick, and us), and indicate that we would plan to share it in hard copy at the meeting this afternoon. I'm happy to send it or have one of you do it....
See what you think.

Should the next version be clean we have so much redline that will make it easier to catch typos etc. in one last quick look.

Gary- I addressed several of Laura's comments in this version (see highlights). She's working on a paragraph now to address her remaining points in the comment bubbles on page 5 and 6. But I think for now you can work off this version.
