Good afternoon Marcia and Julie,

It's been a long time since we've talked and hope that you're both doing well.

Once this publishes on Thursday, I'll start posting the comments for this docket through FDMS. We are expecting thousands of comments and trying to figure out if PEPC or Texifter should be used to analyze and code the substantive comments.

We are not accepting emailed comments so we will not have the issues we've had with the Hawaii Rule. The mail-in comments and postcards will be handled separately and will not be uploaded to FDMS. We are expecting form letters from the various National Monuments and would like to discuss the best way of capturing this data, as well as oppose or support comments.

Are you available for a conference call tomorrow to discuss this? If we can have a demo of each system that would be helpful.

Respectfully,
Jennifer
