Hello All,

Attached are draft motions to stay the AFRC and O&C Counties cases challenging the CSNM expansion. The motions request a stay until December 1.

DOJ is now including WH Counsel (John Moran) on correspondence about this case and he will review filings, per request. Jacqueline's email below requests comments in the next few hours if we have anything to add before she sends to WH Counsel. I plan to review now in case there is anything concerning. Brian and I will also send to BLM for review.

Please let us know if you have any comments.

Thanks.

Laura and Brian,

Attached, you'll find the draft motions to stay for both cases in which plaintiffs have opposed a stay for the CSNM expansion. My senior reviewer still needs to take a final look at these, so they're subject to change slightly, but Coby has already edited, and so I wanted to get them over to you for any DOI review. My senior reviewer plans to look at these later this afternoon.

I don't plan to send a draft to John Moran at the White House until my senior reviewer has provided any inputs. So if you get the chance to look at these in the next few hours and have any input, please let me know and I'll incorporate that into a draft to send to Mr. Moran.

Thanks,

Jacqueline

Case No. 1:17-cv-00441-RJL

FEDERAL DEFENDANTS' NOTICE OF EXECUTIVE ORDER AND CABINET SECRETARY REVIEW AND UNOPPOSED MOTION TO STAY CASE

In this action, Plaintiff challenges the January 2017 expansion of the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument in Southwestern Oregon and Northwestern California, undertaken pursuant to the Antiquities Act of 1906, now codified at 54 U.S.C. §§ 320301–320303 (“Antiquities Act”). Federal Defendants provide notice of an Executive Order from the President of the United States, “Review of Designations Under the Antiquities Act,” that directs the Secretary of the Interior (“Secretary”) to review certain designations made under the Antiquities Act, including the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument. See Presidential Executive Order on the Review of Designations Under the Antiquities Act (Apr. 26, 2017) (“Executive Order”), 82 Fed. Reg. 20429 (May 1, 2017). Pursuant to this directive, the Secretary is reviewing the designation of the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument, and that designation could ultimately be changed in ways that would affect this litigation. The Secretary should be afforded the opportunity to fully review the designation and respond to the President’s direction in a manner that is consistent with the terms of the Executive Order. Deferral of further judicial proceedings is thus warranted.¹

Accordingly, Federal Defendants respectfully request that the Court stay this case while the agency conducts its review of the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument designation and that the stay remain in place until 30 days after the August 24, 2017 deadline for the Secretary’s final report to the President, that is, until September 23, 2017, to allow for consideration of any resulting proposals affecting this case, with a joint status report concerning further proceedings due upon expiration of the stay period. As discussed further below, this stay will promote judicial economy by avoiding unnecessary adjudication and will support the integrity of the administrative process.

Federal Defendants contacted counsel for Plaintiff regarding this motion. Plaintiff does not oppose the motion.

I. Background

The Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument in Southwest Oregon was designated in 2000 by President Clinton under the Antiquities Act of 1906, now codified at 54 U.S.C. §§ 320301–320303 (“Antiquities Act”), and originally was to include approximately 52,000 acres. Proclamation No. 7318, 65 Fed. Reg. 37249 (June 9, 2000). In 2017, President Obama expanded the Monument by approximately 48,000 additional acres. Proclamation No. 9564, 82 Fed. Reg. 6145 (Jan. 12, 2017).

Plaintiff in this case, a forest products trade association that alleges its members are adversely affected by the Monument’s expansion, challenges the expansion. (ECF No. 1, Compl. ¶¶ 16, 17.) Federal Defendants’ response to the Complaint is currently due June 23, 2017 (Minute Order of Apr. 24, 2017, approving parties’ stipulation for extension of time). Three parties have sought intervention (ECF No. 6, 16), Soda Mountain Wilderness Council, Klamath-Siskiyou Wildlands Center, and Oregon Wild.² That motion is still pending.

On April 26, 2017, the President of the United States, Donald J. Trump, signed an Executive Order establishing the policy of the United States that National Monument “[d]esignations should be made in accordance with the requirements and original objectives of the [Antiquities] Act and appropriately balance the protection of landmarks, structures, and objects against the appropriate use of Federal lands and the effects on surrounding lands and communities.” See

² The Wilderness Society initially sought to intervene, but withdrew from that motion. (ECF No. 16.)

Executive Order § 1. The Executive Order also states that National Monument designations have a substantial impact on the management of Federal lands and the use and enjoyment of neighboring lands. Id.

As a result of this impact, the Executive Order directs the Secretary of the Interior to review all Presidential designations or expansions of designations made under the Antiquities Act since January 1, 1996, where the designation covers more than 100,000 acres, where the designation after expansion covers more than 100,000 acres, or where the Secretary determines that the designation or expansion was made without adequate public outreach and coordination. Id. § 2(a). The goal of the Secretary in this review is to determine whether each designation or expansion conforms to the policy set forth in section 1 of the Executive Order. Id. In making his determination, the Secretary may consult with other executive departments and agencies as well as any affected state, tribal or local officials. Id. § 2(b), (c). An interim report on Bears Ears National Monument and other designations selected by the Secretary must be provided within 45 days of the date of the Executive Order. Id. § 2(d). The final report on all relevant designations is due within 120 days of the date of the Executive Order, so by August 24, 2017, and is to include recommendations for Presidential action, legislative proposals, or other actions consistent with the law. Id. § 2(e).

The National Monument whose expansion Plaintiff challenges in this case comes within the review required by the Executive Order. In fact, the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument is expressly included on the list of those National Monuments under review. See 82 Fed. Reg. 22,016 (May 11, 2017).

II. Argument

The Executive Order and National Monument review mark substantial new developments that warrant staying this litigation. A stay will further the Court's interests in avoiding unnecessary adjudication, support the integrity of the administrative process, and ensure due respect for the prerogative of the executive branch to evaluate the policy decisions of a prior Administration.

Courts have broad discretion to stay proceedings and to defer judicial review in the interest of justice and efficiency. See Am. Petroleum Inst. v. EPA ("API"), 683 F.3d 382 (D.C. Cir. 2012). Further, agencies generally have authority to reconsider past decisions and to revise, replace, or repeal a decision to the extent permitted by law and supported by a reasoned explanation. FCC v. Fox Television Stations, Inc., 556 U.S. 502, 515 (2009); Motor Vehicle Mfrs. Ass'n v. State Farm Mutual Auto. Ins. Co., 463 U.S. 29, 42 (1983). Here, the President has directed the Secretary of the Interior to review various National Monument designations and expansions, has instructed the Secretary to consider the Act's requirement that reservations of land not exceed the smallest area compatible with the proper care and management of the objects to be protected, and has established a specific 120-day period for the Secretary's review to be accomplished. The Secretary's review will culminate in recommendations for Presidential action, legislative changes, or other actions consistent with the law.

In light of this recent development, a stay is warranted in this case. The President of the United States has directed the Interior Secretary to immediately take all steps necessary to review a number of designations, including the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument, and if appropriate, make recommendations that may substantially affect or alter the designation. The impending review has the potential to affect issues at the core of this action. Thus, "[i]t would hardly be sound stewardship of judicial resources to decide this case now." API, 683 F.3d at 388.

Staying the present challenge will preserve the status quo, in which the designation is presently pending judicial review. Plaintiff, which challenges the expansion of the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument, does not oppose the requested stay of proceedings.

Federal Defendants therefore request that this Court stay this case and all pending deadlines while the Secretary conducts his review of the designation for the Cascade-Siskiyou National Monument and that the stay remain in place until 30 days after the August 24, 2017 deadline for the Secretary's final report to the President, that is, until September 23, 2017. At the end of the stay, the parties will submit a joint status report concerning further proceedings in this matter.

Plaintiff in this case, an association of Oregon Counties that alleges its member counties are adversely affected by the Monument’s expansion, challenges the expansion. (ECF No. 1, Compl. ¶ 1.) Federal Defendants’ response to the Complaint is currently due June 23, 2017 (Minute Order of Apr. 24, 2017, approving parties’ stipulation for extension of time).
