Office of National Conservation Lands and Community Partnerships
Week Ahead Announcements and Actions
Week of June 12, 2017

- Wild and Scenic River Act/National Trails System Act 50th Anniversary Planning

In the month of June, in preparation for the 50th anniversaries of the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act and the National Trails System Act in 2018, the BLM, other Federal agencies, and private partners will be actively involved in communicating achievements, public education efforts, and events. Cathi Bailey, National Rivers Program Lead, and Deb Salt, National Trails Program Lead, are leading BLM's involvement. Bob Wick, Wilderness Specialist, Rachel Wootton, Planning and Environmental Specialist, and Amy Krause, New Media Lead, are the representatives for the communications meetings. Sally Butts will participate in the monthly federal leadership meeting. June is Great Outdoors Month and included National Trails Day, Saturday, June 3. The 50th Anniversary communications call will take place on June 15.

- National Monument Review

In the month of June, the Washington Office review team with BLM state offices completed the initial data request for BLM national monuments. The comment response review team has been assembled, including Cindy Osorto, Clayton Schmidt, and Angela West from the National Conservation Lands Division. Using the online comment review system DiscoverText, over 5,000 comments have been reviewed for Bears Ears National Monument thus far. BIA tribal listening sessions began on May 25 and will continue until June 12 in selected locations.

- Interpretive Guide Training

On June 12-15, Certified Interpretive Guide Training will be held in Billings, MT. Julie Clark of BLM-Arcata will be teaching the course on behalf of National Interpretive Program Lead Brianna Candelaria.

- Project Archaeology Facilitator Training

On June 12-17, Jeanne Moe, BLM Project Archaeology Lead, will travel to Boise, ID to teach Idaho's first Project Archaeology facilitator training. BLM-Idaho and the Idaho State Historical Society have partnered to develop curricular materials for Idaho teachers. The facilitator workshop will establish a cadre of instructors to deliver Project Archaeology materials to teachers throughout the state.

- Monthly BLM State Youth and Education Leads Call

On June 14, Youth Program Lead Betsy Wooster and Acting Education Program Lead Derrick Baldwin will host this call. No agenda has been distributed yet.

- 21st Century Service Corps (21CSC) Meeting

On June 14, the Partnership for the 21CSC is having a meeting at Department of Agriculture headquarters. In addition to Federal agency representatives, corps directors/members, as well as partners, will participate to discuss how best to address priorities of the new administration.

- 30-60 Day Look-Ahead

On June 19-22, Clayton Schmidt and Rachel Wootton, Planning and Environmental Specialists with the National Conservation Lands Division, and Kevin Flynn, Outreach and Technical Support Specialist with the Education, Interpretation, and Partnerships Division, will participate in the recreation website work week in Denver.

On June 22-23, Rachel Wootton will be attending review team meeting for FY2018 Land and Water Conservation Fund Recreational Access submissions. The team will meet in Salt Lake City, UT.

On June 24-26 Bob Wick will participate and host an exhibit at the Outdoor Writers Conference in Duluth, MN in coordination with the Milwaukee District. The exhibit will focus on hunting and fishing on BLM lands and the upcoming National Trails and Wild and Scenic Rivers 50th Anniversaries.

On July 10, Bob Wick will participate on an interagency panel to discuss wildlife management issues in wilderness at the Western Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies (WAFWA) annual conference in Vail, CO.

On July 9-15, the Native Youth Community Adaptation and Leadership Congress will be held at the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service's National Conservation Training Center in Shepherdstown, WV. The BLM plans to have four junior faculty (college students) and one BLM staff faculty from Arizona serve as faculty mentors for tribal youth. The BLM will also participate in a career fair scheduled for Thursday afternoon during the Congress.

On July 17-29, the National Scout Jamboree (held every four years) will take place at the Boy Scouts of America's Summit Bechtel Reserve in Glen Jean, WV. The Eastern States Office is coordinating BLM participation on the Jamboree's Conservation Trail, with assistance from the Division of Education, Interpretation, and Partnerships (WO-420) and other BLM Headquarters divisions. WO-420 will also provide a staff member to assist with exhibit hosting. In addition, Project Archaeology Program Lead Jeanne Moe will conduct training for National Park Service staff related to requirements for earning the Archaeology Merit Badge.
