GRAZING TO CONTINUE ON PARTS OF CRATERS OF THE MOON - DECISION ADVANCES TRUMP ADMINISTRATION'S SUPPORT OF LOCAL COMMUNITIES

WASHINGTON – The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) today announced that livestock grazing will continue on BLM-managed portions of the Craters of the Moon National Monument in Idaho. The decision demonstrates the Trump Administration's effort to support traditional uses such as grazing on public lands while providing opportunities for recreation and promoting conservation.

“By working together with our stakeholders, we can strike a balance of various uses in this iconic national monument while also serving the greater community,” said BLM Acting Director Michael Nedd. “Our multiple-use mission helps ensure that public lands—including Craters of the Moon—work for local communities and visitors alike.”

SECRETARY ZINKE EXPANDS HUNTING AND FISHING OPPORTUNITIES AT 10 NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

(WASHINGTON) In his latest effort to increase access to hunting and fishing on public lands and waters, U.S. Secretary of the Interior Ryan Zinke today announced a proposal to open or expand opportunities at 10 national wildlife refuges. If finalized, this would bring the number of refuges where the public may hunt up to 373, and up to 312 where fishing would be permitted.

“I grew up in the mountains of northwest Montana, where I spent my time hunting and fishing on our shared public lands. I was lucky to take my boys out on the same land that my dad and granddad took me,” said Secretary Zinke. “As the steward of our public lands, one of my top priorities is to open up access wherever possible for hunting and fishing so that more families have the opportunity to pass down the heritage. The last thing I want to see is hunting and fishing become elite sports. These ten refuges will provide incredible opportunities for sportsmen and anglers across the country to access the land and connect with the wildlife.”

SECRETARY ZINKE MOVES TO ACCEPT 3,595 ACRES OF WILDERNESS FOR SPORTSMEN'S ACCESS TO SABINOSO WILDERNESS AREA IN NEW MEXICO

WASHINGTON – Following a trip to New Mexico, Secretary of the Interior Ryan Zinke today announced he and the Department - through the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) - are in the process of accepting the donation of 3,595 acres (formerly known as the Rimrock Rose Ranch) that are adjacent to Sabinoso Wilderness to be included as part of the wilderness.

If approved, the donated land will provide public access to the 16,000-acre Sabinoso Wilderness, which is wholly surrounded by private land. By adding the donated land, the Sabinoso will connect with neighboring BLM land and make the Sabinoso accessible to the public for the first time ever.

White House Report (Yesterday)

Press Inquiries:

· CBS News & NBC News: REQUEST-- I have interviewed Joel Clement for tonight's NBC Nightly News broadcast. I am looking to get a response to his claims from the DOI. —RESPONSE—
Statement on the whistleblower The Department does not comment on ongoing matters such as whistleblower complaints. We look forward to working with the Office of Special Counsel to address any questions they might have about this matter. Regarding the shuffling of SES at DOI: The President signed an executive order to reorganize the federal government for the future and the Secretary has been absolutely out front on that issue. In fact, he mentioned a Department-wide, front lines-focused reorganization on his first day address to all employees. The purpose of the Senior Executive Service is to ensure that the executive management of the government of the United States is responsive to the needs, policies, and goals of the Nation and otherwise is of the highest quality. Senior executives are the highest paid employees in the federal government and signed up for the SES knowing that they could be called upon to work in different positions at any time. Congress meant for the SES to be a mobile force that are capable of taking on different assignments to meet the needs of the agency. Personnel moves among the Senior Executive Service are being conducted to better serve the taxpayer and the Department's operations.

- KXLH TV Helena, MT (Mike Dennison): - REQUEST – Comment on the ad from Backcountry Hunters and Anglers? – RESPONSE - Secretary Zinke is carrying out the review of some national monuments in accordance with the April 26 executive order. Of the hundreds of national monuments, 27 were put under review. So far, the Secretary has recommended that no changes be made to five monuments. The Secretary has visited monuments in half a dozen states and met with stakeholders who represent all sides of the issues. In fact, the Secretary recently took the time to meet with and hike with members of the group that is running the ads while he was in New Mexico. The Secretary is dedicated to ensuring all voices are heard in this process.
- Various inquiries regarding local national park programs.

Emergency Management

In Idaho, the Powerline Fire has burned 53,076 (+1,062) acres and is 47 (+22)-percent contained. The fire is managed by a Type-2 Incident Management Team (IMT) with 468 (+65) personnel, which includes 123 (-3) DOI personnel. There are 20 (no change) residential structures threatened and 150 (no change) evacuees. Native American cultural resources, utility lines, and pipelines remain threatened for the time being; however, additional perimeter growth is not expected, and risks to resources and utilities are expected to diminish greatly in the coming days. Full containment is expected on August 13.

In Oregon, the Spruce Lake Fire in Crater Lake National Park (NPS) has burned 4,681 (no change) acres. The fire is 23 (+4)-percent contained and managed by a Type-2 IMT with 384 (-13) personnel assigned, including 15 (+1) DOI personnel. There are 39 (no change) residential and 13 (no change) commercial structures threatened. Several trails in Crater Lake National Park are closed, including the Pacific Crest Trail. The Park's West Rim Road remains closed, and an evacuation notice has been issued for the Visitor Center at Rim Village, Park Headquarters, and Mazama Village. Full containment is expected on August 31.

Outside Media of Interest

Uncertainty As National Monument Review Deadline Nears.

The St. George (UT) Spectrum (8/8, DeMille) reports that "two weeks ahead of a Trump administration deadline to complete a review of 27 national monuments, including Utah's Bears Ears and Grand Staircase-Escalante, the status remains uncertain for most of them." Interior Secretary Ryan Zinke has "already issued a preliminary recommendation to shrink the Bears Ears monument, and over the course of the past several weeks he has said that five others should remain monuments and go untouched." However, "the details behind what might happen at Bears Ears and the fate of the 21 other monuments remain a question mark."

Sage Grouse Conservation Changes Praised, Provoke Alarm.

The AP (8/8, Gruver, Brown) reports that the Trump Administration has "opened the door to industry-friendly changes to a sweeping plan imposed by his predecessor to protect a ground-dwelling bird across vast areas of the West." Representatives of the ranching and energy industries lauded "the policy shift as needed to give states flexibility." However, wildlife advocates are concerned "that the proposed changes would undercut a hard-won struggle to protect the greater sage grouse."

Scientist Claims Administration Punishing Him For Speaking Out About Climate Change.

Chip Reid of the VideoCBS Evening News (8/8, story 5, 2:30, Mason) reported on an interview with US Interior Department scientist Joel Clement about "what happens to a government scientist who speaks up about" climate change. For the past seven years, Clement has been working in Alaskan villages that "are literally melting into the Arctic Ocean." Clement addressed the issue last month at the UN, and six days later, "he was one of about 50 department employees who were assigned to new jobs." Clement has filed a whistleblower complaint, saying, "I believe that the Trump Administration is retaliating against me for disclosing these risks to these Alaskan native villages."

Commentary: Slaughtering Wild Horses Would Be Simplistic And Cruel.

In an op-ed for the Salt Lake (UT) Tribune (8/9, Hammer), Rob Hammer, the proprietor of Wild Horse Tourist, opposes an amendment to the Interior Department's 2018 spending bill introduced by Rep. Chris Stewart "that would send thousands of America's wild horses to slaughterhouses." Hammer argues that the "proposal to simply slaughter these cherished symbols of our national heritage amounts to greed-driven cruelty and should be stripped from the Appropriations Bill before final Congressional approval." Instead, Hammer supports "comprehensive approaches that generally include some combination of administering long-acting birth control, retiring grazing leases, increasing lease fees, reapportioning AUM allotments, protecting large predators, returning herd areas to their original acreage and repopulating zeroed areas."

After Trump Warning Of "Fire And Fury," North Korea Threatens Strike On Guam.

President Trump's warning to North Korea, which was followed by Pyongyang threat to strike Guam, are garnering heavy media attention, including the lead reports on all three networks newscasts. Reuters (8/8, Oliphant, Blanchard) reports, warned North Korea it would be met with "fire and fury like the world has never seen." Stephen Ganyard said on VideoABC World News Tonight (8/8, story 2, 1:15, Muir) that "to hear this language out of a US president, it's something we have never heard before, and it certainly puts the world on notice." Media reports cast the developments as presenting Trump with his greatest challenge yet of his presidency, with analysts and commentators taking a decidedly dim view of his rhetoric. The Los Angeles Times (8/8, Hennigan, Cloud, Bierman), for example, reports that the President's "dramatic threat of annihilation raised fresh fears of a confrontation with North Korea," and "in many ways mirrors his North Korean counterpart's," the New York Times (8/8, Baker, Sang-Hun) refers to "chilling language that evoked the horror of a nuclear exchange," and a Washington Post (8/8) editorial criticizes the President's "unsettling threat," which it calls "reckless and unnecessary. In its bombast, it resembled nothing so much as Kim Jong Un's regular denunciations of the United States, frantic and hyperbolic." Dealing with the threat posed by the North, the Post argues, "will require patient pressure and skilled diplomacy, perhaps for years. Instead, Mr. Trump has strut into the arena with a jarring rhetorical grenade."
