Marcia,

Please give me a call so we can talk this over.

Stu -

Attached is an excel file with the dump (with all available metadata from the FDMS API) with the items that are not found in 6 projects that Randall has access to.

The first sheet is a pivot table / summary of the items by count by day, and the second sheet are the actual items from the FDMS API.

One pattern that I noticed is that it appears that around the times of our data loads (June 5th, June 13th) - it appears that the majority of the documents that are not in DiscoverText are around those times... I wonder if there is a gap between how they downloaded / requested the FDMS .zip dockets that caused missing items to not be included in the uploads we got from them.

- Mark
