Subject: Re: monument litigation

To follow up on Sonoran Desert in accordance with our email exchange below: attached is DOJ's motion to extend BLM's time to complete the ROD for the plan amendment until March 5, 2018. Plaintiffs have consented to the extension (which is surprising in a good way since they opposed the original one). DOJ needs to file this today.

All representations regarding the review and the report track earlier motions (including NE Canyons), so I think we're ok there. One question would be whether we want to refer to the monument recommendations as "draft" as the Secretary did in his press release or stick with the formulation in NE Canyons, which doesn't call them draft (see the highlighted note on page 3 of the motion). I'm inclined to stick with the latter since that's what we've already said to a court.

This is being coordinated with BLM, including Cally, and I'll make sure I check in with Downey.

I connected with WHC. We ought not comment on the leaked report and should litigate the cases as we would absent the leak. With that guidance, please proceed with Option 1.

Dan & Rick:

In light of the leaked report and the expiration of the stay in the Cascade Siskiyou expansion cases, the litigation for two monuments has gotten more complicated. Summarized below is what we plan to tell DOJ. We need to get back to DOJ ASAP on Sonoran Desert (ideally sometime this morning) so please let us know if you would like to discuss before we do.
