Rich -- this just came up on our radar. The event is being hosted and organized by a third party but they are asking for BLM participation. The "Don" being referenced is the local Field Office manager. --K

Kristin and Jerry,

As you will see below, I have been asked to sit on a panel led by Carl Rountree. We have Don and some of our folks attending. Don could do the Panel. I feel an obligation to go because of all they have done for the resources and the nice tour they gave me. The sensitivity is the "celebration" headline. What do you all think? Ed

Ed:

I know they told you a bit about Celebrate Cedar Mesa. However, I'm writing to extend a warm invitation directly to you to join us and participate on a panel discussion about the future of Bears Ears. We have invited many BLM Utah, Moab District, and Monticello Field Office staff to attend...and all our agency partners are welcome.

This year Celebrate is March 3-5, and we expect 300+ folks to participate in a weekend of events, which includes service projects Friday, our main gathering with educational presentations Saturday, and hikes on Sunday. See the attached draft agenda for the full run down.

Quite a bit of the Saturday 3/4 agenda is dedicated to Bears-Ears related issues. For example we have a panel discussion about "Debunking Monumental Myths" to help get past all the misinformation about the monument. We also have Lyle Balenquah speaking about Visiting Sacred Sites with Respect.

In addition, we're having a panel discussion entitled "What's next for Bears Ears?" We would love to have representative from the BLM participate in the discussion (you or another leader if you're willing). The panel will be moderated by Carl Rountree, who I know you've worked with extensively in DC. Also on the panel will be Bears Ears Inter-Tribal Coalition Co-chair Alfred Lomaquahu, Nada Culver from the Wilderness Society and John Ruple from the University of Utah law school. We have also invited a representative from the Forest Service (sent to Nora), but have not yet heard back.

OK...Let me know what you think.

Thanks!

Josh Ewing
