Thanks Randy.

I called the HelpDesk to inform them but they do not open until 9:00. I'll try again after 9:00.

Jennifer

Hi Randal,

FYI, This was forwarded to me by Megan in Executive Secretariat. Do you want to respond with the email address listed in the Federal Register notice? It's usually the postmarked date, not the date we receive the mail in comment.

I am teleworking today. Please contact me if you need anything. My cell phone number is [REDACTED].

Thanks!
Jennifer

Hi Megan,

The Regulations.gov Help Desk received the following ticket from an individual submitting a comment on Bears Ears National Monument (DOI-2017-0002-0001) via US mail:

25 May 2017

Regarding: Public comments on the Presidential Order of for review of certain National Monuments (comments due by 26 May 2017 for Bears Ears National Monument).)

I have called the help-line at 1-877-378-5457 to try to find out the deadline for comments sent by U.S. postal mail. The person there could not provide the answer to this question. Are mailed comments (via U.S. postal system) considered to have arrived on time by

(a) date of receipt or

(b) date of postmark?

Why is this not explained in the notice in the Federal Register? That is REALLY LOUSY public relations.

Please answer this ASAP.

Thanks!
