If Lydia does not reply to me overnight, EDT, then tomorrow (Friday) I will E-mail the Counsel to the American Samoa Senate, who owes me a favor.

A-OK. Copy. I will at least re-E-mail you within the next fifteen minutes. I do not feel comfortable telephoning the Governor's Executive Assistant (Joe Pereira) directly without Lydia's setting it up.

No, not yet. I have not heard back from Lydia. I do not know if Lydia received my earlier message, and I do not know the number which I should telephone. (There are a few to choose from.) In any event, I will daisy-chain you in. Is 219-1037 the best number for you?

I'll come to your office for the call if that's OK

The Secretary of War carried out the President's insular responsibilities:

- from December 13, 1898, in the Division of Customs and Insular Affairs
- from December 10, 1900, in the Division of Insular Affairs, and
- from July 1, 1902, in the Bureau of Insular Affairs, which was abolished July 1, 1939

Executive Order No. 6726 of May 29, 1934, established in the Department of the Interior the Division of Territories and Island Possessions, which was renamed:

- the Office of Territories on July 28, 1950
- the Office of Territorial Affairs on July 1, 1971
- the Office of Territorial and International Affairs on June 6, 1980, and
- the Office of Insular Affairs on August 4, 1995

Secretary's Order No. 3287 (July 2, 2009) restored the Assistant Secretaryship. Through the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Office of Insular Affairs the Secretary of the Interior is the civil administrator of thirteen of the fourteen U.S. territories (all but Puerto Rico).
