

2019 Las Cruces Native American Symposium

Presented By: BLM Las Cruces District Office /New Mexico State University/
New Mexico Farm and Ranch Heritage Museum

Free
Event!

Join the community of Las Cruces and Southern
New Mexico for Native American
Inter-tribal cultural presentations and dances.

When: November 20-21, 2019
8:00 am - 5:00 pm

Where: New Mexico Farm and Ranch Museum, 4100 Dripping
Springs Rd., Las Cruces
&

**NMSU Campus -
Kent Hall University Museum****

Emcee: Alex Mares (Dine' & Hispanic)

- Eagle Claw Gourd Society
- Traditional Navajo horse training and Apache horse storytelling
- Archeological presentation
- Indigenous music
- Traditional dances
- Dr. Don Pepion (Blackfeet) and NMSU student panel: Indigenous ways and knowledge
- NMSU Indigenous Student Traditional Ecological oral & video presentations
- Nov. 20 at 6 pm- Cheyenne Antonio (Dine') presents "Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women"

**Presentation at NMSU Campus Kent Hall**- University Museum, 1280 E. University Ave., Las Cruces

For more information: John Yazzie (575) 525-4326 or jyazzie@blm.gov

aces.nmsu.edu/ird/nas.html