

NPR-A Subsistence Advisory Panel

Public Meeting Agenda

Wainwright, Alaska

April 14, 2011, 7 pm, Community Center

7:00 PM

Call to Order: Joe Sage, Chair

Welcome and Introduction: Lon Kelly, BLM

Introduction of SAP Members

Introduction of BLM employees

Invocation

Approval of Agenda

Approval of Minutes

* December 16, 2010 meeting

Report on SAP Workshop: Chairman Joe Sage

Industry Updates

Bruce St. Pierre of Conoco Phillips Alaska, Inc.: update on the plugging and abandonment of Puviaq well.

BLM Update: Arctic Field Office Manager Lon Kelly

1. Progress on the all-NPR-A Integrated Activity Plan/EIS
2. (tentative) Wild Lands inventory of all BLM land
3. Update on Clean up at Wainwright DEW
4. Overview of 2011 NPR-A science and research activities

SAP Representatives Community Updates

NPR-A Research Updates

The Subsistence Resource Availability Project: Wainwright, Alaska: Documenting Local Knowledge on the Status and Trends in Availability of Subsistence Resources. Presented by Todd Brinkman of UAF.

Kuk and Kugrua Rivers Systematic Fish and Habitat Survey: presented by Bill Morris of Alaska Dept. of Fish and Game (Fish and Game, NSB, BLM, BOEM).

Community Concerns

Open discussion with audience on projects, land management issues, etc.

Recommendations from the SAP to the BLM Authorized Officer

Adjournment & End of Public Meeting