

National Public Lands Day 2013: West Side Trail interpretive kiosk and sign installation project

Date: Saturday, September 28, 2013 National Public Lands Day

Location: West Side Trail trailhead, intersection of Buchanan Road and Mira Monte Road, near Tuolumne City, Tuolumne County, CA. Go to www.publiclandsday.org for a project location map.

Hours: 9:00 am to approximately 2:00 pm (or when work is completed).

Specifics about project: Volunteers will help professional crews install new interpretive kiosks and signs along the West Side Trail.

Why you should participate: The West Side Trail is an amazing recreational trail with outstanding views of the North Fork of the Tuolumne River canyon. The new interpretive signs will enhance the enjoyment of trail users.

What to bring: Bag lunch, hat, sunblock, long pants, long-sleeve shirts, and sturdy shoes.

What NOT to bring: BLM will provide gloves, eye protection, and plenty of ice-cold bottled water. Also, please leave pets at home.

Qualifications: No previous experience is necessary.

How physical (or not physical) the work will be: If you can do light yard work and moderate walking and lifting during the summer/warm months, you can participate in this project.

More information/to sign up: For more information or to RSVP, please contact James Barnes at the Bureau of Land Management's Mother Lode Field Office at 916-941-3140 or jjbarnes@blm.gov
