

SOUTH COAST PLANNING AREA

- The South Coast Planning Area encompasses a region with over 20 million residents.
- The “Inland Empire” is one of the fastest growing regions in the United States.
- Southern California has the highest “biodiversity” of any region of the United States.
- Managing biological resources and diverse uses of public lands through Cooperative Conservation and Partnerships are the focus of BLM planning for South Coast.

