

Camping Information:
Recreation Site Name:	Location:	Nearest Town:	Approximate Elevation:	Season Duration:	Number of Sites:	Fees:
Eagle River-Wolcott Site	I-70 Exit 157 at Wolcott and turn north. Turn left onto frontage road (Old Highway 6) at stop sign. Follow road ? Miles past bridge and Wolcott Yacht Club. Turn off to right at Wolcott Recreation Area and follow road down hill.	1 mile from Wolcott, CO	6,200 feet	May 15 through November 15.	6	$10/night per site ($5/night with Golden Age or Golden Access Passport)
Eagle River-Gypsum Site	I-70 Exit 140 at Gypsum and turn south. Turn right on the frontage road (Old Highway 6) and go ? Miles past the roundabout. Take a left to the Gypsum Recreation Area.	1 mile from Gypsum, CO	6,200 feet	Campground #1 and #2 are open year-round. Other campsites are closed November 15 to May 15.	10	$10/night per site ($5/night with Golden Age or Golden Access Passport)
Deep Creek	I-70 Exit 133 at Dotsero and turn north onto County Road 301 (Colorado River Road). Follow for approximately 2.5 miles. Turn at Forest Service sign onto Deep Creek Road. Go through private property for the first 2 miles until enter BLM. Campsites are marked along the road, as well as walk-in sites at the Coffeepot trailhead. White River National Forest access is further up the road. Be careful of trucks on road.	9 miles from Gypsum, CO	6,300 feet	Year round (recommended spring through fall).	6	None
Thompson Creek	US Highway 82 to Highway 133 South to Carbondale. At Main Street (East) and Thompson Creek Road (County Road 108) turn west (right). Follow road on mesa, past Crystal River Ranch and Spring Gulch Ski area. Turn left on the first dirt road and follow it into the hollow. The campground is located 2 miles on the right and at the end of the campground is the trailhead. This road is a four wheel drive road and impassible when wet.	3 miles from Carbondale, CO	7000 feet	Year round (recommended spring through fall).	4	None

Upper Colorado River-Catamount Bridge	I-70 Exit 133 at Dotsero and turn north onto County Road 301 (Colorado River Road). Follow road over several bridge crossings for 26 miles until you reach another bridge crossing. Park on left side to access boat ramp and campground.	4 miles from Burns, CO; 25 miles from Wolcott, CO	6,600 feet	Year round (recommended spring through fall).	9	None
Upper Colorado River-Pinball Point	I-70 Exit 133 at Dotsero and turn north onto County Road 301 (Colorado River Road). Follow road for 21? Miles to Pinball Point on your right side.	27 miles from Gypsum, CO	6,400 feet	Year round (recommended spring through fall).	1	None
Upper Colorado River-Lyons Gulch	I-70 Exit 133 at Dotsero and turn north onto County Road 301 (Colorado River Road). Follow road for 3.8 miles until site on right side with two parking areas.	9 miles from Gypsum, CO	6,200 feet	Year round (recommended spring through fall).	4 (1 large site for bigger groups)	None

Toilet:	Metal Fireplaces: (Fires allowed under Stage I restrictions)	Garbage Collection:	Picnic Tables:	Recreation Activities:	Physical Characteristics:	Disabled Accessibility:
Yes	Yes	Yes (Summer only)	Yes	Fishing; Boating; Climbing; Picnicking	Eagle River frontage, near steep slopes and cliffs up to 800 feet above the river. Sage, pinyon pine, juniper, gambel oak, willow, scattered spruce. Wildlife includes ducks, geese, blue heron, bald eagles and other raptors.	Yes
Yes	Yes	Yes (Summer only)	Yes	Fishing; Boating; Picnicking	Near steep slopes and cliffs up to 800 feet above the river. Walk-in to Eagle River. Cottonwoods, sage. Wildlife includes ducks, geese, blue heron, bald eagles and other raptors.	Yes
Yes	Some	No	Some	Fishing, Hiking	Nominated for wild and scenic river designation. Spruce, pines, cottonwood, pinyon, juniper, oak, willow and wild rose cover. Wildlife includes deer, elk, black bear, mountain lion, bobcat, bald eagles and other raptors as well as a variety of small birds and mammals. Also historic habitat for Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep and peregrine falcons.	No
No	No	No	No	Hiking; Fishing; Mountain biking; Hunting; Cross country skiing	Steep walled canyon with sandstone cliffs and rock outcrops. Nominated for wild and scenic river status. Vegetation varies from cottonwood, spruce, Douglas fir, ponderosa pine, pinyon pine, juniper, sage, wild rose, willow, choke cherry, serviceberry and wildflowers. Wildlife includes deer, elk, black bear, small birds, small mammals, mountain lion, coyote, turkey and grouse.	No

Yes	Yes	No	Yes	River floating from late May through September (Class I and II); Fishing; Hiking; Hunting	Riverside setting below sandstone cliffs. Shaded by cottonwood and gambel oak, willow, wild rose, serviceberry and chokecherry. Wildlife includes deer, fox, bald eagles, ducks, blue geese, blue heron, and songbirds.	Yes
Yes	Yes	No	Yes	River floating from late May through September (Class I and II); Fishing; Hiking; Hunting	Gambel oak and willow. Wildlife includes deer, fox, bald eagles, ducks, blue geese, blue heron and songbirds.	Yes
Yes	Yes	No	Yes	River floating from late May through September (Class I and II); Fishing; Hiking	On the Colorado River. Shaded by cottonwoods and has gambel oak, wild rose and willow. Wildlife includes deer, fox, bald eagles, ducks, blue geese, blue heron and songbirds.	Yes