BLM's Northwest Resource Advisory Council Meets Aug. 18 in Craig

CRAIG, Colo. – The Bureau of Land Management's Northwest Colorado Resource Advisory Council will meet Aug. 18 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Craig at the Holiday Inn , 300 S. Highway 13.

The meeting is open to the public, with public comment periods scheduled for 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Agenda topics include:

- White nose syndrome/cave management alternatives
- Recreation Fees Evaluation Process for BLM RACs
- Federal oil and gas unitization overview
- Piceance-East Douglas Wild Horse Gather Plan and EA
- Field Manager Updates

The Northwest Colorado RAC meets quarterly in northwestern Colorado. It is one of several citizen advisory councils to BLM Colorado. Its 15 members are appointed by the Secretary of the Interior and represent a broad range of public land interests, including environmental, local government, wild horse and burro, and commercial activity. The Northwest RAC advises the BLM Colorado Northwest District, which includes the Grand Junction, White River, Little Snake, Kremmling and Colorado River Valley BLM field offices.

For more information on Colorado RACs, go to www.blm.gov/co and select Resources, then Resource Advisory Councils.
