BLM Northwest Resource Advisory Council meets in Meeker August 20

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. – The Bureau of Land Management’s Northwest Resource Advisory Council will meet Thursday, Aug. 20 at the Rio Blanco Fairgrounds, Sulphur Creek Rd, Meeker.

The meeting is scheduled to run from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. and is open to the public, with public comment periods related to items on the agenda scheduled for 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Agenda items include a presentation on archaeology, field manager updates and other items affecting district field offices. A copy of the agenda is attached.

The Northwest Colorado RAC meets quarterly in northwestern Colorado. It is one of several citizen advisory councils to BLM Colorado. Its 15 members are appointed by the Secretary of the Interior and represent a broad range of public land interests, including environmental, local government, wild horse and burro, and commercial activity. The Northwest RAC advises the BLM Colorado Northwest District, which includes the Grand Junction, White River, Little Snake, Kremmling and Colorado River Valley BLM field offices.
