

Little known facts

- 1) Did you know that if you can't grow it, it has to be mined or recycled?
- 2) Did you know that buying a book online burns 1-ounce of coal?
- 3) Did you know that quartz sand and limestone are used to make glass?
- 4) Did you know that plastics are made with petroleum products?
- 5) Did you know that an average new American home contains more than 8-tons of...
- 6) Did you know that molybdenum is used as a coating on solar panels cells to aid in conduction?
- 7) Did you know that Hybrid cars typically use more copper than non-hybrid cars?
- 8) Did you know that the foundation for a wind turbine may contain over a thousand tons of concrete and rebar?
- 9) Did you know that silver is used as the reflective coating on mirrors?
- 10) Did you know that the three most common minerals in CDs and DVDs are aluminum, gold, and oil?
- 11) Did you know that during the Revolutionary War, about 1,200 pounds of minerals were needed per person, per year? And as of 2005, that amount had increased to 47,502 pounds?
- 12) Did you know that minerals are in the makeup we wear?

Every American Born Will Need...

2.96 million pounds of minerals, metals, and fuels in their lifetime

©2011 Mineral Information Institute, SME Foundation

Learn more at www.mii.org

www.mii.org

What Minerals Do You Use On A Daily Basis?