

Sandstone

Sandstone - Sandstone has many applications in both industry and residential settings. It is a widespread resource throughout Colorado, and provides an excellent domestic and export commodity. Sandstone is frequently used in industrial flooring and linings because of its resistance to corrosive chemicals and abrasive materials. Additionally, sandstone is used residentially for decorative purposes. In response to public demand, the Bureau of Land Management has worked to make this material easily available for public collection in Fremont and Huerfano counties.

Mineral
Materials

Bureau of Land Management
Royal Gorge Field Office
Canon City, CO
(719) 269-8500

