RESOURCE ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETS

The Front Range Resource Advisory Council for the Bureau of Land Management will meet November 14, 2007 in Canon City.

The meeting will be from 9:15 a.m. to 4 p.m. to discuss several land management topics including: the BLM noxious weed program, an Arkansas Headwaters Recreation Area update, travel management planning and an update on the South Park Land Tenure Adjustment Plan. The public is welcome to address the Council at 9:30 a.m. with any comments, concerns, issues or questions.

The 15 member Council, all local residents, represent a diversity of public land interests and users. They advise BLM Managers and provide recommendations on land management programs and issues.

The meeting will be at the Abbey Community Center, 2951 E. Highway 50, in Canon City. The public is welcome to attend. Anyone needing further information can call Ken Smith at the BLM office at (719) 269-8500.
