BLM Front Range Resource Advisory Council to meet

Cañon City, Colo. – The BLM Front Range Resource Advisory Council (RAC) will hold their next meeting on Wednesday, July 15, 2009 at the BLM Royal Gorge Field Office at 3028 East Main Street in Cañon City.

The meeting will be held from 9:15 a.m. – 3:45 p.m. and will include a manager's update from the San Luis Valley Public Lands Center (SLVPLC) and the Royal Gorge Field Office (RGFO), a presentation on the Paleontology Resources Preservation Act of 2009, and a discussion regarding the Over The River™ project proposal. The meeting is open to the public with an opportunity for public comments from 10:00 a.m. – 10:15 a.m. The complete agenda is available on the BLM Front Range RAC Web page at http://www.blm.gov/co/st/en/BLM_Resources/racs/frac.html.

The Front Range RAC is a 15-member council representing a diversity of public land interests and users. The Front Range RAC advises BLM managers for the RGFO and the SLVPLC with recommendations on land management programs and issues.
