BLM Front Range Resource Advisory Council to meet

CAÑON CITY, Colo. – The BLM Front Range Resource Advisory Council will hold their next meeting on Thursday, August 19, 2010 at the BLM Royal Gorge Field Office, 3028 East Main Street in Cañon City.

The meeting will be held from 9:15 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. to discuss the issues and concerns the RAC identified during their July 2009 meeting regarding the proposed *Over The River*TM art project. The RAC will determine if those issues and concerns have been adequately addressed in the OTR Draft Environmental Impact Statement. The public will have an opportunity to provide oral or written comments to the RAC between 9:35 a.m. – 9:50 a.m. The meeting agenda is provided on the BLM Front Range RAC Web page at www.blm.gov/co/st/en/BLM_Resources/racs/frfac.html.

This meeting is not part of the OTR Draft EIS public involvement process. Comments provided by any party during the RAC public comment session are considered comments to the RAC and will not be considered part of the EIS comment record. The public must submit their written comments by any of the methods provided by the BLM to be considered into the EIS comment record. Those methods are: email to co_otr_comments@blm.gov; mail at BLM RGFO, OTR Comments, 3028 E. Main St., Cañon City, CO 81212; fax at 719-269-8599; or by using the Web comment form at www.blm.gov/co/st/en/fo/rgfo/planning/otr.html.

For additional information about the RAC visit the Front Range RAC Web site or contact Cass Cairns at the BLM office at 719-269-8553.
