Published press releases announcing fee proposal in Valley Courier and other local papers.	9/21/10 Press Release FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE September 21, 2010 BLM Seeks Public Comment on Campground Fees SAGUACHE - The San Luis Valley Public Lands Center is seeking public input on two fee proposals: one to increase overnight camping fees for the Penitente Canyon Campground and the second to establish overnight camping fees at the new Zapata Falls Campground. Penitente Canyon Campground is located west of the town of La Garita. Zapata Falls Campground is currently being constructed near the trailhead to Zapata Falls. Both are on lands managed by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM).

Fees at the Penitente Canyon Campground have not been raised since 1997 and maintenance costs have increased significantly since then. The fee increase would enhance BLM's capacity to maintain and improve this recreation area.

The current fee charges are $5.00 per night for a standard campsite and $15.00 per night for a large group campsite. The proposed fee is $11.00 per night for a standard campsite and $20.00 per night for a large group campsite. The proposed fee is comparable to facilities offering similar amenities on public lands throughout the state. The additional fees would support operation and maintenance of the campground as well as upgrades to the restrooms, campsites, roads, trails and signs.

Construction of Zapata Falls Campground should be completed by June 2011. BLM must start the process to establish an overnight camping fee now in order for it to be operational by next summer. Fees at this campground would be the same as at Penitente: $11.00 per night for a standard campsite and $20.00 per night for a large group campsite. The fees would support operations and maintenance of the campground. Article published in the Pueblo Chieftain explaining benefits of fee revenues.	9/22/10 News Story - Pueblo Chieftain by Matt Hildner Higher Fees Sought for Recreation Spots MONTE VISTA - The Bureau of Land Management has issued fee proposals for a pair of recreation areas in the San Luis Valley. The agency wants to set the fees at the future Zapata Falls Campground and at Penitente Canyon to $11 per night for a standard campground and $20 per night for a large group campground. Last year, 40,000 visitors made it to the recreation area at Penitente, which is a popular spot for climbers, mountain bikers and hikers, said Mike Blakeman, a public affairs officer for the agency. The agency argues that the current fees of $5 per night and $15 per night for large groups have not kept pace with the cost of maintaining the area, which sits near La Garita in the northwestern corner of the valley. The new fees would support campground operations and upgrades to restrooms, campsites, roads, trails and signs. Work crews are still constructing the Zapata Falls Campground, which is

	expected to open in June. The campground, which is being built thanks to federal stimulus dollars, would sit in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains, roughly five miles south of the Great Sand Dunes National Park. Comments on the proposals can be sent by Dec. 1 to Outdoor Recreation Planner, Saguache Field Office, 46525 Colorado 114, Saguache, CO 81149, or via e-mail, with "campground fees" on the subject line, to snoonan@blm.gov.

E-mail Responses	9/22/10 "Good Morning, I object to campground fee increases for one major reason, the campground Nazis. It galls me to go to a campground in my own backyard and find a campground "host" flying an Oklahoma or Texas state flag, no Colorado state flag or US flag in sight, and have them lording it over me like little dictators. If they love their own state so much they can go back and fly their flag there, or at least have the respect for their host state to fly our Colorado flag and the national ensign as well as some foreign flag! If you will fire all campground hosts and give the money to the BLM or USFS it would be fine if you need a minor increase. The way things are being run now I will camp only outside campgrounds."
