

An Ancient Coin

Name: _____

Place an "I" before the statements that are inferences, and an "O" before the statements that are observations.

1. There is a representation of a face on one side of the coin.
2. The coin tells us that these were deeply religious people.
3. The words "We Trust the Gods" are printed on the coin.
4. On one side of the artifact is a drawing of leaves.
5. We can tell from the artifact that these were peace-loving people.
6. The face on the coin is a representation of the nation's king.