WELCOME

Perched on the rugged breaks overlooking the Pecos River, Haystack Mountain OHV Area offers a wide range of trails to ride. From novices to experts, on bare rocks and sandy washes, OHV enthusiasts can find terrain to fit their skill level. Designed and designated for OHV's no wider than 50 inches, Haystack Mountain is perfect for motorcycles. In fact, nationally sanctioned trials events are held here.

Haystack Mountain's parking lot is large enough for easy loading/unloading and can be used as a staging area for large events. The area has several picnic sites complete with shelters, tables and grills. Toilet facilities are available but there is no potable water.

SAFETY FIRST

We want you to enjoy your visit to Haystack Mountain and the first step is to be properly equipped to protect yourself. The well-dressed ATV rider wears the following items of protective clothing:

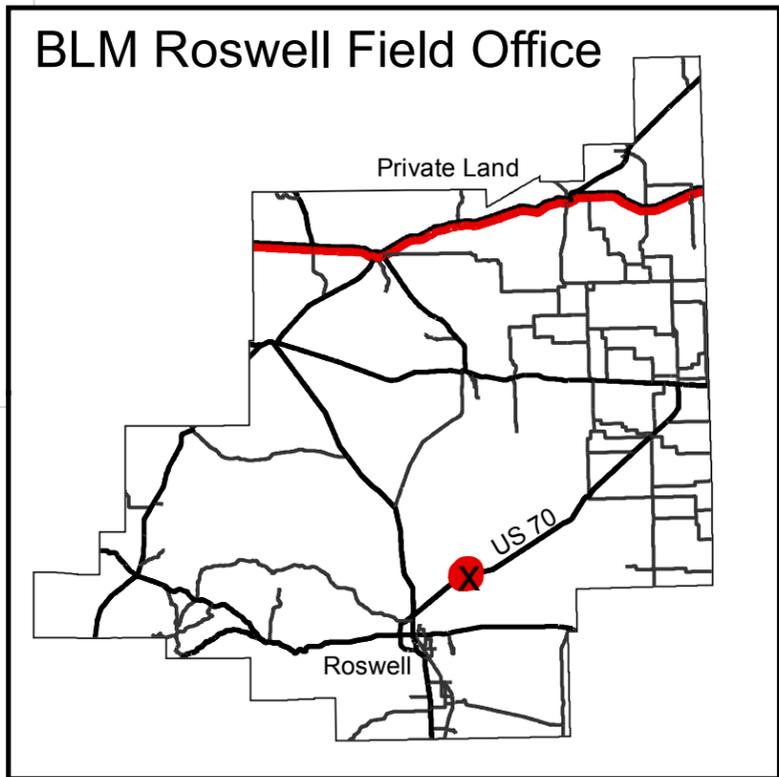

Private Property

Please respect private landowners' property that surround the OHV area. Boundaries are marked with signs so that riders will be able to stay on public lands that make up the OHV area. Detailed topographic maps are available at BLM's Roswell Field Office.
