

Travis Dittmer...

For more than 25 years, Travis has worked to acquire his horsemanship skills as an instructor, trainer, and saddle maker. Growing up in Idaho and working for ranches in different states, he developed a method of handling horses and cattle that has had lasting results.

Travis has been training and teaching in the Ft. Worth area for ten years. He is continually refining his program starting young horses and dealing with remedial issues in older horses.

Travis has been showing in the Mustang Makeovers for 5 years now, consistently placing in the top ten with his horses. He values the Mustang as the true test of a horseman's ability.

Not only does his method of training produce solid horses, it facilitates the sharing of knowledge with his students. Passing on this hard earned knowledge is something Travis is most passionate about. From fundamentals to advanced maneuvers, his goal is building confidence for horse and rider. He realizes the value of teaching leadership skills, honesty and riding for tomorrow. Ultimately, no matter what horse you ride or care for in your lifetime, your education will always stay with you.

This fall Travis will be featured in National Geographic Wild's Mustang Millionaire. Be sure to like us on facebook or go to www.prohorsemanship.com and we will keep you updated on when the show will air!
