

Rachel Dickerson ...

At the age of 15 Rachel attended Steve Mantle's wild horse training clinic in Wyoming, where she adopted her first horse, a mustang gelding. She would train and finish the gelding in both English and Western disciplines. The pair went on to receive the Green Horse - High Point buckle award at the Wild Horse & Burro Expo in 2002. She was honored in 2007 to be one of 100 trainers selected from across the country to compete in the first ever Extreme Mustang Makeover.

During college Rachel was a member of the Texas A&M University Horse Judging Team from 2007-2008, that was recognized as Reserve Champions at both the National Reining Horse Association and National Breeders Reining Classic intercollegiate judging contests. Currently, she enjoys training and finishing young horses and competing in the show ring.

Rachel welcomes the opportunity to be a part of this year's Wild Horse & Burro Expo.
