

Silver King Wild Horse Gather Veterinary Report

Wednesday, September 29, 2010

Equine receiving veterinary examination:

1. Buckskin filly, approximately 2.5-3 mos of age, initially examined 9/28
 - significant ambulatory improvement, mild generalized swelling over left shoulder, slight lameness of left forelimb, Rx Flunixin meglumine IM prior to transfer.
2. Bay filly, approximately 5 mos of age
 - abscesses over withers, bilateral, right side already draining, lanced left side, flushed both sides w/Betadine solution, applied topical wound spray, Rx Flunixin meglumine IM for discomfort
3. Bay lactating female
 - draining abscesses, bilateral, point of shoulder, treated with topical wound spray
4. Gray adult male
 - spot on left eye, vision normal
5. Black adult male w/white socks
 - applied topical wound spray to superficial abrasions on head

Hallie Hasel, VMO

USDA APHIS VS