

March 15, 2012

Red Rock/Sloan Field Office Monthly Open House Agenda
Topic: Update on Sloan Canyon National Conservation Area Projects

2:00 -----Day Session Begins-----

Welcome/Introduction of Presenters:

- Tim Wakefield, Field Manager
- Robbie McAboy, NCA Manager
- Brenda Warner, Sloan NCA Outdoor Recreation Planner
- Gina Mele, Sloan Canyon Interpretive Ranger

Special Guest Presenters:

- Bonnie Kolesa, McCullough Hills Trail Project Engineer, City of Henderson
- Alan O'Neill, Neon to Nature Trail System
- Mindy Meacham, Southern Nevada Health District
- Rob Vaghini, Associate Program Director, Great Basin Institute (GBI)
- Miguel Gonzales, Sloan Canyon Trail Coordinator, GBI

2:10 Presentation:

- 4 minute power point showing general project areas – Brenda
- The City of Henderson will soon begin construction on the McCullough Hills Trail. Bonnie Kolesa will provide an update.
- Alan O'Neill and Mindy Meacham will present plans to install mile markers on trails in Sloan Canyon and other trails in the Las Vegas Valley to promote walking/hiking as a way to better health.
- Rob Vaghini, Miguel Gonzales and Brenda Warner will offer detailed updates on trail construction in the NCA. GBI youth crews are currently working in the Park Peak and Black Mountain area.
- Gina Mele will provide an overview of environmental education programs, public awareness events and volunteer opportunities.

3:00 Q & A

6:00 -----Evening Session Begins-----

Same agenda as day session

7:30 Adjourn