

"Pretty Girl"

I adopted a wild mustang in April 2005 and everything has gone great.

I named her "Pretty Girl" and she is a very close family pet. My dog and Pretty Girl have developed a very close relationship as well. They play together and chase each other around like two little kids. I caught the two together and thought this was a wonderful picture to share. Pretty girl is now 4 years old and very laid back. I am pleased to share this with BLM and keep up the great work.

"Pretty Girl" and her best friend!
