

Monitoring Without Borders Meeting

Tuesday, March 10, 2015

Rawlins Field Office

- 10:00-10:10 Introductions: Mary Read, Bureau of Land Management (BLM) Wildlife Biologist
- 10:10-10:20 T&E Species Updates: Nathan Darnell, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) Wildlife Biologist (provided handout)
- 10:20 -11:00 CD-C, Desolation Flats, Atlantic Rim & Control Area 2015 Field Season Inventory & Monitoring of Raptor Nests: BLM & Industry
- 11:00-11:45 CD-C, Desolation Flats, Atlantic Rim & Control Area 2015 Field Season Inventory & Monitoring Greater Sage-Grouse Leks: BLM, WGFD & Industry
- 11:45-1:00 LUNCH – on own
- 1:00- 2:00 Integrated Monitoring in Bird Conservation Regions: Design, Methods, Products, and a Case Study (Atlantic Rim) & Discussion for CD-C & DF EIS Project Areas: Nick Van Lanen – Rocky Mountain Bird Observatory, BLM
- 2:00-2:30 2014 Annual Progress Report: Response of Pronghorn Population Productivity in the Red Desert, Wyoming to Anthropogenic and Environmental Changes: Adele K. Reinking, University of Wyoming, MS Research
- 2:30-3:00 Reclamation: Uses for Data & Data Collection Methods: Ray Ogle – BLM
- 3:00-3:15 BREAK
- 3:15-4:00 Reclamation: Group Discussion: Ray Ogle – BLM
- 4:00-4:30 Atlantic Rim Mule Deer Migration Corridor Research Phase III: Frank Blomquist - BLM, Tony Mong – WGFD
- 4:30-5:00 CD-C EIS, DF EIS & AR EIS Project Areas:
(a) Annual reports and meetings
(b) Three phases for species:
(1) Annual inventory and monitoring
(2) Determine & implement protection measures/adaptive management
(3) Analyze the effectiveness of the protection measures
- 4:15-5:00 – Open Session: Other Issues, Changes and Concerns

