

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 67-1 Mule deer

Page 68-1 Pronghorn antelope

Page 68-2 Elk

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 68-3 Greater sage-grouse

Page 68-4 Greater sage-grouse winter habitat

Page 69-1 Ferruginous Hawk

Page 68-5 Columbian sharp-tailed grouse

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 69-2 Mountain plover

Page 76-1 Impacts to wildlife: livestock grazing

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 76-2

Impacts to wildlife: oil and gas development

Page 79-1
Antelope crucial winter range, Powder Rim

Page 79-2

Severe browse use on antelope CWR, Muddy Creek

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 79-3 Elk on crucial winter range

Page 79-4
Antelope on Wyoming big sagebrush winter range

Page 79-5
Poor condition mule deer crucial winter range
Savery, Wyoming

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 79-6
Poor condition Mountain mahogany CWR, Poison Buttes

Page 79-7
Good condition mixed mountain shrubs, mule Deer CWR, Browns Hill

Page 79-8
Poor condition Juniper CWR, Baggs

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 79-9 Woven wire fence with two top barbed wires for sheep allotments

Page 79-10 Three-wire electric fence which facilitates wildlife passage

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 79-11
Habitat monitoring, greater sage-grouse nesting habitat

Page 80-1 Dense sagebrush, proposed for treatment to improve grouse habitat

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 81-1 Colorado River Cutthroat Trout

Page 83-1 Culvert on Muddy Creek, barrier to fish migration

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 83-2 Littlefield Creek in Grizzly allotment, 1987

Page 83-3 Littlefield Creek in Grizzly allotment, 1998

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 85-1 Potential impacts to fisheries and wildlife: coalbed methane development

Page 85-2 Fish barrier on Muddy Creek, to allow treatment and reintroduction of CRCT

Watershed Health Standard 4-Wildlife/Threatened and Endangered Species Habitat Health

Page 85-3
Reintroduction of CRCT to Littlefield Creek, 2001

Page 88-1
Sling loading aspen trees to beaver on Littlefield Creek

Watershed Health Standard 4-Weeds

Hoary cress
Cardaria arvensis (L.) Desv.

Page 89-1

Salterdar
Tamarix ramosissima Ledeb.

Page 89-2

Houndstongue
Cynoglossum officinale L.

Page 89-3

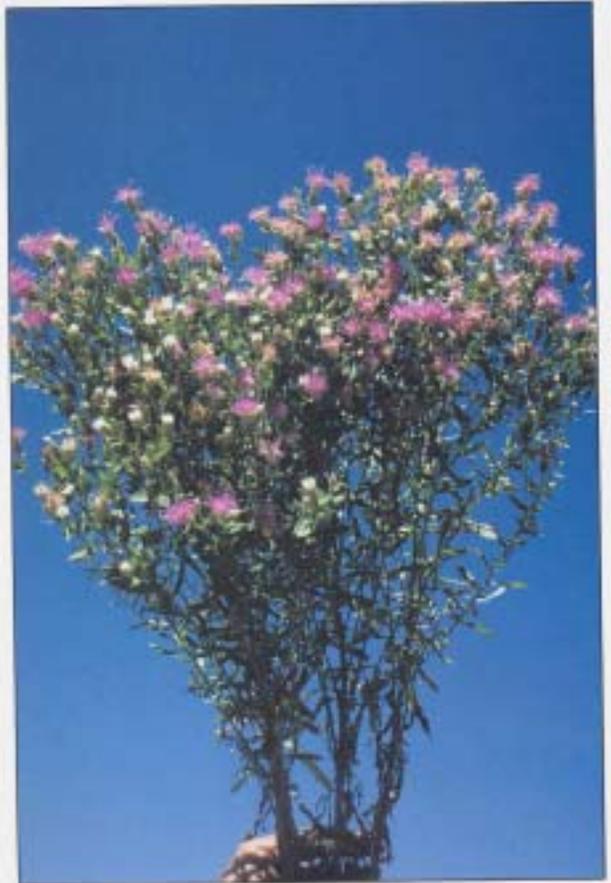

Watershed Health Standard 4-Weeds

Musk thistle
Carduus nutans L.

Page 89-4

Russian knapweed
Acroptilon repens (L.) DC.

Page 89-5

Watershed Health Standard 4-Weeds

Page 90-1 Houndstongue in Loco Creek

Page 90-2 Halogeton along roadsides

Watershed Health Standard 4-Weeds

Page 90-3 Halogeton

Page 90-4 Halogeton on oilfield development

Watershed Health Standard 4-Weeds

Page 90-5 Henbane along roadside

Page 91-1 Pipeline reclamation in Sand Creek drainage
