Aquifer Prioritization for Ambient Groundwater Monitoring

Yellowstone National Park

Unmapped Area

Cody

Basin

Sheridan

Buffalo

Gillette

Sundance

Worland

Newcastle

Thermopolis

Jackson

Pinedale

Lander

Casper

Douglas

Lusk

Wheatland

Torrington

Kemmerer

Rawlins

Green River

Evanston

Laramie

Cheyenne

Aquifer Prioritization

- Low
- Low - Moderate
- Moderate - High
- High
- No Data

N

W E

S

0 30 60 Miles

1:2,100,000

Lambert Projection, Standard Parallels 33 and 45 Degrees North, Central Meridian 107.5 Degrees West.

Produced by the University of Wyoming Geographic Information Science Center and the Department of Civil and Architectural Engineering at the University of Wyoming, in cooperation with the Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality Water Quality Division, the Wyoming State Geological Survey, the U.S. Geological Survey, and the University of Wyoming Department of Geology and Geophysics.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

WYOMING

STATE OF WYOMING GEOLOGICAL SURVEY 1933

USGS science for a changing world

Distributed by the Wyoming Geographic Information Science Center (WyGISC). For information call (307)766-2532 or e-mail info@wygisc.uwyo.edu.