Subject: Hi Lander RMP Personnel -- My immediate concern is I do not see any comments/commentary referring to the protection of Cultural Assets, thank you, Jim Stewart

Hi Lander RMP Personnel:

RE: Lander Draft RMP-EIS

My immediate concern with the BLM proposed RMP is that I do NOT see any table of contents listing/comments/commentary referring to the protection of Cultural and Historic Assets. I.E. the protection of Prehistoric Native American assets, Oregon/California/Mormon Trail assets, other historic trails assets, historic westward expansion/development assets, and historic ranch assets; etc.

Is this because I am not looking in the right place?

Or, is it because the BLM RMP does not directly address the protection of Cultural and Historic Assets?

Or, is because the BLM RMP has intentionally or unintentionally hidden such information in a format of mega numerous boxes which are hard to understand, versus any real narrative statement?

Or, is it because there was/is no real intent by the BLM for the public to understand the RMP?

NOTE: This is the IRS approach to taxes that requires members of the public to hire an accountant, H&R Block, and/or Turbo Tax to assist them in paying taxes -- because the IRS really does not want the general public knowing any of the loop holes, etc.

Would you please respond.

Thank you,

Jim Stewart
